This is the last Will and Testament of me Emma Ann Whitehead Kepe of Babbicombe in the parish of Saint Mary Church Devon. If the property bequeathed to me by my late dear Mother at Babbicombe is not sold I direct that my Executrix and Executors shall take steps to dispose of it to the best reasonable advantage. When sold after my just debts are paid I give and bequeath to my Executrix and Executors or their executors or administrators the sum of One thousand pounds to be invested to the best advantage in good Government security the interest to be paid quarterly and equally between my late Mothers faithful servants Eliza Neck, Jane Neck and William Discombe as long as they live the survivors or survivor to enjoy the whole for life. On the decease of all three to revert to my sister Charlotte Baldry if living or her children. To my sister Charlotte Baldry I further bequeath according to my late Mothers wish the sum of One thousand pounds if living (free from the control of her husband) if not living to her children equally. To my dear sister Mary Maclean I give and bequeath the china tea kettle enameled or copper. The Enameled Bowl and Jug. The very large China Jars on stand (pair) the plate in plate chest marked with her fathers crest, her fathers drawing books I also direct she shall have the power to select anything she may like from my personal things as my gift and remembrance - also leave her White c. Derby Group of Shepherds. To my sister Harriett Eliza Maxwell I bequeath the Marble Table, Alabaster Clock, the Chessmen in Ball which belonged to her father. I give to her daughter Mary Fernie my Piano. The remainder of the money I direct to be divided into three equal parts. First paying a legacy of Fifty pounds to my brother St. John Curtis Kepe if living, and to my nephew George Maxwell a legacy of Ten pounds. The remainder of the money to be divided into three equal portions between my sisters Harriett Eliza Maxwell Amelia Hamilton Edwards and Harriett Emily Kepe the lawful Wife of my brother St. Curtis Kepe for their sole and separate use free from the control debts or incumbrances of their husbands. If my sister Harriett Eliza Maxwell is not living her portion to be divided between her daughters married and unmarried should my sister Amelia Hamilton Edwards not be alive her portion to be divided between her two youngest daughters Ellen Edwards and Amelia Nell Edwards - should Harriett Emily Kepe not be living her portion to go to her only child and daughter Catherine Montgomery Campbell for her sole use free from the controul debts or incumbrances of her husband. And as to the rest and residue of my personal estate and effects whatsoever and wheresoever

Executors

I give and bequeath them all to my sister Amelia Hamilton Edwards appointing her residuary Legatee - should she not be living to my sister Harriett Eliza Maxwell leaving her residuary Legatee. And I hereby appoint my sister Amelia Hamilton Edwards my nephew George Maxwell and Arthur Charles Wilkinson the survivors or survivor of them Executors of this my Will. As witness my hand this sixteenth day of December 1845.
